Course Description

Sanskrit Language I introduces students to the grammar, orthography and pronunciation of the Sanskrit language. There will also be some discussion of the historical, cultural, linguistic and religious contexts of the language. These aspects of the course will not be part of the assessments.

SLAN 101 has three components:

Grammar Class—led by a teacher who focuses on analytic approaches to the study of Sanskrit grammar using categories of analysis from outside the indigenous grammatical tradition.

Traditional Class—led by a traditionally-trained pandit who focuses on oral and indigenous approaches to studying Sanskrit.

Review Class—led by a teacher who conducts exercises with the students to consolidate their learning.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will be able to recognize and understand many common grammatical features of the Sanskrit language (e.g., case, number and gender of nouns; person, number and tense of verbs; etc, etc, etc!)
- Students will be able to read, write and pronounce Sanskrit in the devanāgarī script.
- Students will learn the basics of Sanskrit melody and conversation skills.

Course Requirements
How do I succeed in the course?	The course will use a combination of prerecorded grammar lessons and live sessions to teach the course material. A typical week will be structured as follows: o Prerecorded Material: students will watch grammar videos ahead of the live meetings o Grammar Class: there will be two live sessions per week to discuss current material (90 minutes each) o Traditional Class: there will be a live session each week with the traditional teacher (60 minutes) o Review Class: there will be a live tutorial each week with the teaching assistant to discuss current material (60 minutes) In order to succeed in Sanskrit Language I, students will be expected to watch all of the prerecorded grammar videos, regularly attend live classes, and are expected to regularly participate and contribute. Although every student might not speak in each class, they should still be participating in some other capacity (group work, etc.).
